Job Summary

You will meet with, or speak by telephone to, residents and provide accurate advice in a friendly and reassuring way in regard to fuel bills, fuel debt, and energy efficiency. This will include providing advice on solutions, and the availability of funding and other support to address energy efficiency, sustainability, bills and fuel debt, income and benefit maximisation, and (through referral to external partner agencies) general debt.

You will also assess Clients' eligibility for support, make applications to funding providers to remove/reduce arrears on fuel bills and other needs, provide energy efficiency and tariff advice to assist Clients to achieve affordable warmth, help Clients navigate the relevant financial support schemes available at any time, and advise on the potential for sustainable energy measures. The advice provision will be underpinned by the use of external and internal on-line and off-line software to make applications and capture all aspects of Client engagement.

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities

1. Dealing appropriately with all Client queries received including general and specific enquiries on dealing with domestic fuel debt, fuel tariffs, and energy efficiency.
2. Giving advice on grants available to deal with arrears on fuel bills and energy efficiency measures
3. Maintaining a high degree of flexibility in conducting face-to-face meetings with Clients at main office and also through outreach and home visits. A significant amount of the advice will be given at local community sessions or in Clients' homes.
4. Making high quality and successful applications to funders on behalf of Clients to address fuel debt and other support available.
